

Making a complaint

Children, Young People & Families

Our commitment to you

We try very hard to provide a good service to children, young people and their families. We recognise that we occasionally get things wrong.

We take all concerns and complaints seriously. Your feedback will help us to deal with mistakes faster and learn how we can do things better another time.

When should you make a complaint?

If you have a problem with the way we provide a service and it can't be put right at the time, you can make a complaint.

Who can raise a complaint?

Anyone who uses Mentoring Plus services can make a complaint, including children, young people and families.

How do you complain?

Each child, young person and family has a specific practitioner at Mentoring Plus. This is the first person you should contact with any complaint.

Each part of our charity has a Senior Practitioner who is responsible for how it runs. You may prefer to take your complaint to the Senior Practitioner for your project – details below.

You might find this form useful to think about what you want to say.

What will happen after you complain?

We will let you know we've received your complaint within two working days. We hope to have answered your complaint within 10 working days.

We will try to not to tell other people about the complaint if it's not necessary. Sometimes there may be occasions when we cannot keep your complaint secret, especially where someone may be at risk of harm. If we do have tell other people about the complaint we will let you know.

We will keep records of your complaint and what we do to resolve it. We handle all personal information in line with the Data Protection Act.

Further help with making your complaint

If you would like any help to make your complaint, please contact your practitioner as given above.
